The large living area is illuminated by the French window with a view and overlooking the wonderful private garden. The living room houses the three-seater sofa and two bookcases which in fact also act as partitions between the entrance and the living area. In front of the sofa, there is a wall dedicated to the kitchen with an island table and stools.

... An extra room for the summer. With the arrival of the beautiful days you want to be in the relaxation of a green landscape, but it is not always possible to organize outdoor weekends. This is why a house with a garden would represent a turning point. A relaxing place in your home, a real dream. Having a garden means having more outdoor space in the summer. The garden is an extra room where you can invite friends, let pets run, and for those with a "green ...
